Lastly, you must personally appropriate these truths by faith, meaning that believe them in your heart and confess them with your mouth.

Questions 2 – After reading Romans 1-11, what is the logical conclusion we should reach (cf. Romans 12.1-2)?

2 - POSSIBLE ANSWERS

At the beginning of Romans 12, Paul reflects on the entirety of what he has written thus far and he reaches the conclusion that the only proper response to God's mercy is the offer ourselves to Him in humble service. He specifically calls us to offer our bodies as an act of worship. The focus of Romans 6 was how to handle our "members"; here Paul is exhorting us to give all of our physical bodies (strength, hands, feet, etc) to the Lord for His work.

WHAT DO YOU SAY?

These questions are designed to help the student express their thoughts, feelings, and opinions about something they have learned from the chapter.

EXAM 1 – How has this lesson helped you understand God’s sovereignty better?

1 - COMMENTS

- God’s sovereignty is seen in His choosing of Israel for the purpose of revealing Himself to the world. He made a covenant with them which involves promises and privileges. Through them came the Messiah. God chose them not for anything He saw in them. The ultimate destiny of individuals and nations rest on God’s mercy, not in their own strength or works (v. 16). Israel rejected God and therefore mercy is offered to the Gentiles.
