BLESSINGS FROM PRISON

November 2021: Vol. 39, No. 11

Royal Priesthood Prayers and Petitions

Protection of prison staff. A recent study shows a spike in September of staff deaths in Texas prisons (average of three per month in 2021; fifteen in September.).

Protection of prison inmates: a reduction in staff can mean loss of control, dangers, and further lockdowns.

Reduction of COVID in prisons: Several state prisons have gone on complete lockdown again due to an increase in positive cases. Many students have asked for prayer concerning this. A local chaplain comments:

“Write-Way is doing a terrific job in Fannin County Jail (Bonham) where outside volunteers have had very little access to the prisoners [due to COVID]. There is a spiritual movement of great dimensions among the prisoners who are left on their own, having the Bible and your good studies.” Chaplain Ted

May the rich colors, fresh air, and harvest of gratitude this Fall prompt you to call upon the Lord.

“Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever.” Psalm 118:1

“Thank you, guys, for being there with me through hard times, feeding me spiritually, and getting me fat with the word of Christ.” Gilbert

At the front door...
