BLESSINGS FROM PRISON

Dear Friends,

December 2013: Vol. 31, No. 12

"Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared in the same..."

Hebrews 2:14

"What amazing condescension is it that God, who made all things, should assume the nature of one of His own creatures, that the Self-existent should be united with the dependent and derived, and the Almighty linked with the feeble and mortal! In His Incarnation, our Lord Jesus Christ descended to the very depths of humiliation, by entering into alliance with a nature which did not occupy the chief place in the scale of existence...It must ever remain to us the mystery of mysteries that God Himself was manifest in the flesh."

Charles Haddon Spurgeon, Christ's Incarnation, pp 45, 47, Pilgrim Publications, 1978

That Jesus would give condescending attention to a prisoner is even more amazing. Thank you for taking on His mindset and participating with us in this great Harvest venture. Merry Christmas to all!

ON EARTH PEACE

"I spent ten years studying with Write-Way, from 1992 - 2002, before becoming disobedient to God. It only took a few months to completely lay down my Bible and go back to serving the desires of the flesh. Now comes the part I find interesting; my period of disobedience was from 2003 - 2013, the same length of time I studied - ten years. There's more. Whose Bible study is put into my hand? Why it was Write-Way! I believe the Lord wishes for me to finish your entire curriculum. The promise is: 'Neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.' John 10:28" Kenneth every effort along the journey laid ahead of you."

"May God continue blessing your ministry more abundantly, reaching out and pulling in the lost scattered sheep inside prison walls. I do understand how difficult a project the Church of Christ has in the business of winning lost souls. No matter how tedious a job it may be attending fish, it's worth

"Thank you for the service you extend to me and others in my position. You've helped me to grow and understand life and the love of Christ. I can honestly say that I've become closer to the Lord and have changed greatly, and your program has been a big part of me becoming who I am now and who I will go on to be. Thanks so much for your love and support!" Louis

"The materials are excellent. I just want to again express my gratitude for the opportunity to study and grow with such excellent materials as you all provide for us prisoners. Most of us could not otherwise obtain such wonderful studies."

GOODWILL TOWARD MEN

"I enjoy studying and knowing about the Lord Jesus Christ and the Father in Heaven. I have entered a rehabilitation program, and when I get through, I will go home. When I am out I want to continue studying to learn more about God and my Lord Jesus Christ. The courses have helped me to realize I was living in sin. They have showed me how to live and what I need to do to please God. They also showed me where I can end up by not obeying God and doing what is right. I now know there is nothing I can hide or do that God won't know. Thank you. Keep them coming." Marcello

"Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming"

"My cellmate is thoroughly engrossed in your Bible study. I too am a Christian; I prayed for a Christian cellmate. I would love it if you would enroll me in your study. The more Word the better. After all, it's not like I won't have the time! I have some physical problems and am 58. So I only work one day a week. The rest I give to God." Anthony

"I've enjoyed the last two courses that I completed - Proverbs For Life and Walkin' The Walk. It seemed that they hit my everyday life here in prison harder. I even shared it with other men around me and I could see it opened their eyes to the lesson. Thank you, Lord, for the opportunity to teach me knowledge." Paul

"I want to thank you for the time you take to review my exams and help me with my walk with God. You are a credit to everyone who calls themselves a Christian and I am blessed to be put in your path. Thank you for your love and caring ways." Roger

Bright Autumn meets Ole Man Winter

"I really found my exam [Born To Win] to be a very exciting and interesting experience. I enjoyed every single chapter and was amused by each story. Thank you so much for your patience." Phillip
