Questions 1 – What does nature tell us about God?

1 - POSSIBLE ANSWERS

The first 2 chapters of the course discuss the basic fact of God's existence. From nature/creation we learn about God's invisible attribute, namely His divine power and divine nature. The heavens also bear witness of His power given their grandeur and majesty. It can also point us to God's omnipresence because the world and the universe is so vast and God rules and administrates all of it. Cf. Romans 1:19-20; Psalm 8:3-4; 19:1; 139:7-18.

Questions 2 – What is the significance of Christ's death?

2 - POSSIBLE ANSWERS

The death of Christ takes up a disproportionate amount of space in the gospels when compared to His life. The New Testament describes Jesus as the Lamb of God and His death is sufficient to cover the sins of the whole world. His sacrifice is only efficient for those who come by faith. He gave His life for the sins of the whole world; He died in our place.
